It's raining in the Rousillion

In May we brought the rain from London when we visited La Mariota, whose home and vines are tucked into the mountains of South Western France. The grapes to be are as grateful as the winemakers, Cecilia & Guillermo, as they haven't seen rain here since July 2023.

Our changing climate is bringing an onslaught of troubles to wine growing regions across the world. Alongside increasingly sporadic rainfall, higher temperatures are also sparking wildfires. As Cecilia shows us around their 8 hecates, split into 36 tiny plots, she points out the scorched earth from the last fire, terrifyingly close to their livelihood.

Their endurance is paying off and the wines are spectacular. Long ageing and thoughtful blending are key to creating textural wines that mirror the land. Chalky and saline, zesty whites made from Muscat, Roussanne, Grenache Blanc and Macabeu tastes like lemon balm and mountain herbs. The reds hum with spice and raspberry liquorice, under sweet, ripe fruit. But the real fun is in the oddities, Tacsum orange (muscat, backwards) and their experiments with oxidation...

We've selected a few of our cuvees to share, all available in 75mls, 125mls or by the bottle.

- La Mariota 2022 Roc De La Vella 13 / 20 / 101
From 65 year old Macabeu vines that catch the early morning sun. Tastes like delicate white flowers, fresh pear and salted almonds. Enjoy with finely sliced raw scallop and monkfish.
- La Mariota 2021 Orange Tacsum 14 / 23 / 113
Tacsum spells Muscat backwards. The whole muscat bunches are left with their skins on for 12 days to make an intoxicating perfumed orange wine, heady with apricot and herbs. Try with our artichoke & fennel fritto.
- La Mariota 2022 Le Vol des Etourneaux MAGNUM 12 / 18 / 184
Grenache Noir, Carignan and a touch of Syrah grown in a little valley between the mountains, flanked by granitic cliffs. A light style of red, with the grapes only resting on their skins for five days. Wild strawberries, damson and lillies.
- La Mariota 2020 Bac de las Coves 15 / 23 / 117
The last of their grapes to ripen, this is from Grenache and gnarly old Carignan vines, pressed before being left to rest for 2 years in old wooden barrels. Full bodied with the flavour of raspberry liquorice, cherry and geraniums. Pair with the Jersey Beef.
- La Mariota 2019 Oxidatif Macabeu 19 / 30 / 151
An experiment by the young winemakers. Macabeu juice is left to oxidise in barrels, giving a nutty, fruit cake of a wine, laced with bitter orange oil. For the curious, or those looking for something to drink with their cheese.

Champagne

— Rudolph Peters, from Pierre Peters

The new generation of growers in Champagne are ripping it up and starting again. Large champagne houses have long ruled the roost, but now the kids have taken over and are doing things their way. Working their land, growing their grapes and making wines that bubble with a sense of time and place.

White Wine — France — Burgundy

There's a revolution going on in Burgundy. A core of talented, hard-working producers are wheeling out the guillotine on the region's worst excesses — too much oak, too many chemicals — and introducing practices that yield delicious, sustainable wines which still pay respect to the old methods.

Whilst we're fans of the new wave winemakers, we have a bunch of classic Burgundy made with soul and energy.

Red Wine — Italy — Italian Alps

“Nebbiolo is the easiest wine that you can make, because the grapes already have the wine.” — Olek Bondonio

The Barolo rulebook is almost as heavy as this wine list. The long and short of it is that Barolo remains the baller wine region because bottles need to be aged for at least five years before release. Which for a lot of these wines, is still too young for drinking. A new generation is working on a style that’s a bit more ready-to-wear than old-gold, making the wines more accessible and putting the personality of Nebbiolo grapes, which carpet Piedmont’s hills, front and centre.

Red Wine — Spain — Spanish Mountains

Something is happening on the higher slopes of Spain. There's a wine-making renaissance occurring on the Gredos mountains, overlooking Madrid, as young producers return from the city to make pretty, delicate wines from grenache grapes. Meanwhile, over in Bierzo and Ribero Sacra, Raul Perez is elevating local variety Mencia to Burgundian heights.
